This reminds me of when Grayson teaching Maniac about the kind of ball pitches. Like one time me and my dad playing soccer and he taught me some things. That was some time ago.

This is what I think Finsterwald looks like but he is might not be a bad guy. Also this is the part when he goes to his yard and knocks on his doors and just talks to him and goes back.

I hate how Maniac cannot enjoy pizza. Its so bad!!! and sad! This reminds me of the time I could not have something that I wanted to eat. I was so sad when couldn't eat the food.

This is Maniac Magee running away form home, or should I say his fake home. Maniac is trying to find a home for himself. Maniac keeps on searching which takes a while. This is why I picked this

I choose this is because this reminds me of Maniac and Grayson together. Grayson was like a father to Maniac. It makes me feel bad for him for losing Grayson when he died.

In Maniac Magee when Grayson died this is how I felt about it. Grayson was like the dad of Maniac and when he died Maniac was broken and so sad. I felt sorry for Maniac.

This reminds me of Maniac caching the foot ball with one hand. When HandsDown was suppose to catch the ball This has happen to me before I was suppose to catch a ball but one of friends caught instead .

All that Maniac ever wanted is a family to bond with and share things. This reminds me of my family. We spend time with each other and laugh together. This is why I chose this picture.
